

WV LTAP Virtual RS I Class

Grant Writing Basics

Sept. 18, 2025 9:00 AM – Noon EDT

Overview

Are you ready to unleash the potential of your community? Effective grant writing and planning can help you leverage more resources to address your agency's priorities.

- Learn techniques to demonstrate compliance with program eligibility requirements
- Identify how to stretch your agency's capabilities through inter-agency consultation and collaboration.
- Revisit composition methods to transform your narrative into a powerful story.
- Learn how blended funding sources can be leveraged to reduce or eliminate the need for a local match.

Through this workshop, participants will gain an understanding of the grant-writing process, including the most important considerations for identifying the right funding sources and creating a compelling application. With guidance and practical exercises from grant writing professional Sam Richardson, MPA, attendees will leave with the tools they need to pursue grants and sources of funding their communities need to thrive.

Who Should Attend

Whether you're a seasoned professional or new to the field, this workshop is for anyone looking to unlock the potential of their community through the power of effective grant writing and planning techniques. Register today and take the first step towards securing the funding your community needs to thrive!

Instructor

Sam Richardson, MPA, is an experienced professional in the field of transportation planning. With a Master of Public Administration degree from WVU, Sam has a deep understanding of how to align agency priorities with funding opportunities. He is helping numerous communities in WV maximize their potential through effective grant writing.

Registration

This class will be conducted through Zoom. Click the link below to register.

There is no charge to attend, but pre-registration is required.

<https://bitly.cx/KeJ8A>