

Presenting 101 Webinar

The Art of Effective Face-to-Face & Virtual Presentations

August 11, 2026
10:00 AM - 11:30 AM EDT

Presented by Kim Carr
Program Manager, WV LTAP

Creating and delivering presentations is a necessary skill for many in public works, whether presenting to elected officials, residents, or colleagues.

This 90-minute session will provide attendees with general best practices to improve presentation and communication skills.

Learning Objectives

- ✓ Participants will discuss the specific challenges of presenting virtually.
- ✓ Participants will learn methods to deliver effective and engaging presentations to their audience.

Intended Audience

Anyone working in public works, engineering, recreation, or related public work agency departments.

Registration

This webinar is being offered free-of-charge, but pre-registration is required.

Click here to register.